Ricco Washburn, Esq.

Founder

Mr. Washburn graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree from The Ohio State University, Fisher College of Business and received his Juris Doctorate degree from Arizona Summit Law School in 2015. Before earning his JD, Ricco was effective in his time in Shenzhen, China for the Long'an Law Firm in its e-commerce litigation department.

Since graduation, Mr. Washburn has practiced law exclusively in Florida. During this time Mr. Washburn rose to the position of Junior Partner in a well-respected plaintiff insurance firm in Fort Lauderdale. Mr. Washburn has represented a distinct list of popular Florida companies such as Best in Broward Movers, and well known individuals who play in the National Basketball Association (Ricco is also a Licensed Basketball Agent with the NBA and FIBA).

Utilizing the legal and practical knowledge gained as a primarily civil plaintiff attorney, Mr. Washburn has a unique insight of how to negotiate, evaluate, and value claims, as well as how complex matters are litigated by plaintiff attorneys. Mr. Washburn utilizes his insight to ensure his clients are treated fairly and that they receive full compensation for their damages.

Ricco's practice focuses on proceedings in the Florida District Court and the Florida Supreme Court arising under the Florida Corporation Law, including litigation involving e-commerce with Amazon, Alibaba, EBay, and the like. He also represents national and regional clients in complex business disputes pending in the Florida District Court and the Southern District of Florida United States District Court.

Ricco has substantial experience working on a variety of cases involving important issues of Florida law, including property insurance litigation, derivative litigation, corporate governance disputes, demands for books and records, dissolution proceedings, and other complex commercial disputes. Ricco also regularly advises corporate boards of directors and special committees, including demand review committees. Ricco is a member of the Association of Corporate Counsel. Ricco continues to obtain licenses to gain more knowledge for his clients, in 2019 Ricco passed the Series 7 Stockbrokers Exam.
